THE REHABILITATION ACT OF 1973

The Rehabilitation Act of 1973, which includes “Section 504,” is a nondiscrimination statute enacted by the United States Congress. The purpose of the Act is to prohibit discrimination and to assure that disabled students have educational opportunities and benefits equal to those provided to non-disabled students.

Major life activities include: caring for one’s self, seeing, walking, lifting, speaking, hearing, bending, breathing, standing, working, performing manual task, sleeping, eating, reading, learning, concentrating, thinking, and communicating.

The enabling regulations for Section 504, as set out in 34 CFR, Part 104, provides parents and/or students with the following rights:

4. Least Restrictive Environment. Your child has the right to be educated with non-disabled students to the maximum extent appropriate.
5. Comparable Facilities: Your child has a right to facilities, services, and activities that are comparable to those provided for non-disabled students. 34 CFR 104.34.
6. Evaluations. Your child has a right to an evaluation prior to an initial Section 504 placement and any subsequent significant change in placement. 34 CFR 104.35.

teacher recommendations, physical condition, social and cultural background, and adaptive behavior. 34 CFR 104.35.

8. Section 504 Eligibility and Accommodation Team. Placement decisions must be made by a group of persons, including persons knowledgeable about your child, the meaning of the evaluation data, the placement options, and the legal requirements for least restrictive environment and comparable facilities. 34 CFR 104.35.
9. Re-evaluations. If eligible under Section 504, your child has a right to periodic re-evaluations prior to any significant change in placement. 34 CFR 104.35.

District within thirty (30) calendar days from the parents' or guardians' receipt of written notice of the decision leading to the request for the impartial hearing or within fourteen (14) calendar days of completion of the administrative review.   - iii) Not have any professional or personal involvement that would affect his or her impartiality or objectivity in the matter.

(g) The hearing officer shall render a decision pursuant to the legal standards set forth in 34 CFR, Part 104.

(h) Either party may seek review of the hearing officer's decision by timely filing with a court of competent jurisdiction.

15. Suspension/Expulsion Discipline Issues.

(a) No Section 504 student may be expelled for misconduct which is caused by reason of his/her disability, or was the result of an inappropriate placement.

(b) When suspension results in a period of more than 10 consecutive school days, or a series of suspensions that creates a pattern each of which is 10 or fewer days in duration, totaling more than 10 schooldays, the Section 504 Eligibility and Accommodation Team will convene to determine whether the misconduct was caused by the student's disability.

(c) When expulsion is being considered, the Section 504 Eligibility and Accommodation Team will convene. The parent/guardian will be given at least 48 hours notice of the meeting. The Section 504 Eligibility and Accommodation Team will determine whether the misconduct was caused by the student's disability.

- (d) If the parent/guardian disagrees with the Team's determination, he/she may appeal that determination under the procedures outlined in Step 12, above.
- (e) A parent or guardian's disagreement with the Team's determination or their request for an impartial hearing shall not preclude the District from proceeding with an expulsion or suspension of more than 10 days, if the Team has determined that the student's misconduct was not caused by the student's disability or by an inappropriate placement.

REMINDER: The procedural safeguards outlined in this Notice apply only to students or their parents/guardians making claims under Section 504. Students or their parents/guardians making claims under the IDEA must follow IDEA procedures.
